* Given the growing concern with the issues of personal privacy and security, the Board of the C.G. Jung Club of Orange County spent several months examining and clarifying our policy regarding the sharing of our mailing list.

We take your privacy very seriously. However, the question becomes how to balance this with the mission of the Jung Club, which is to promote an interest in and an understanding of the work of C.G. Jung.

Please be assured that a decision to share our mailing list with reputable and like-minded organizations is made with due deliberation by our Board.
